2015 SOLHEIM CUP

The United States knew it would take an epic comeback on Sunday if they were going to bring The Solheim Cup back across the pond.

Having never come back from bigger than a two-point deficit heading into singles, the U.S. needed the largest comeback in history if it was going to end Europe's reign of two straight victories in the Solheim Cup as they trailed 10-6.

Rally is exactly what Team USA did on Sunday by capturing nine of the 12 matches and earning a halve in the opening match to earn exactly the 8 ½ points needed to regain The Solheim Cup. U.S. Captain Juli Inkster said the final session came down to something she preached to her players all week.

"You know what, I was on them all week," said Inkster. "You've got to play with heart. You've got to play with fire in your belly. Never give up. I saw my team out there today, it didn't look good early, they hung in there, a lot of 2-downs came to evens, and then plus 1."

Things started off slowly for the Americans as there was a lot of blue on the scoreboard in the early holes, but the tide turned red in the middle of the day thanks to some hot play from Team USA.

Sitting 3-down to Charley Hull on the fourth hole, Cristie Kerr made nine birdies in her next 11 holes en route to a 3&2 victory. Michelle Wie shot 30 on the front nine while capturing a 6&4 victory over Caroline Hedwall. In the last three matches of the day, the U.S. won by no less than Kerr's 3&2 victory.

The Cup ended up coming down to two matches: Gerina Piller vs. Caroline Masson and Angela Stanford vs. Suzann Pettersen. Piller was 2 UP with two to play but Masson parred the 17th to cut the lead to one heading to 18. With Masson facing a 10-foot birdie putt, Piller had to get up and down from the thick rough in order to have a chance to win the match. Masson missed her birdie putt and Piller sank the biggest putt of her career and was swarmed by her teammates on the 18th green in celebration.

Stanford was all square with Pettersen through 14, but birdies on 15 and 16 gave her a 2 UP lead with two to play. The U.S. couldn't afford a split, and Stanford clinched the victory with a par and halved hole on No. 17 for the 2&1 win.

There was a little extra motivation for the Americans in their comeback following some controversy early Sunday morning at the conclusion of the Saturday afternoon four-ball matches. Three matches had to finish on Sunday. The Americans won one of the first two and appeared to have a chance to gain at least another half point in the final fourball match between Brittany Lincicome & Alison Lee and Suzann Pettersen and Hull. But with the match all square on the 17th, Lee missed a birdie putt that would have won the hole and when she picked up the 1 ½ footer that remained for par, the Europeans stated that they had not conceded the putt although Lee had thought she heard them do so. The Europeans were then granted the hole and went 1 UP into the 18th and went on to win the critical point.

Lee went out in the fifth singles match and got a bit of redemption herself with a 3&1 win over Gwladys Nocera. Lee, who was the only rookie on either team this week, played like a season-veteran in the afternoon after rallying from a 2-down deficit early on and rattled off three consecutive birdies on Nos. 5-7 and never looked back. She won three more holes on the back nine including the 17th after Nocera hit her approach shot in the water. Lee said the win helped soothe the heartache from the morning's controversy.

"Yes, of course," said Lee. "I really felt like we had that match, and I was sure we had that point for our team. And losing that match and seeing all the girls surrounding me and giving me a lot of support and showing me that they had my back, it felt great. And I think it really did motivate us all to play well in the afternoon and fire back."

The 2013 Solheim Cup, the 13th staging of the event, was held at Colorado Golf Club in Parker, Colo., Aug. 16-18. The U.S. team was looking to recover from a devastating loss on European soil in 2011 and entered the week more prepared and motivated than ever before, but the European team had other plans. Taking a commanding 10.5 - 5.5 lead heading into Sunday's singles matches, the European team charged to the finish line and sealed a 18-10 victory to capture the Cup on American soil for the first time in the event's history.

The European team took the early lead Friday morning, ending the foursomes matches 3-1. They went on to win two more matches in the afternoon four-ball session to take a 5-3 lead over the U.S. team heading into Saturday's second day of play. Saturday morning's foursomes matches brought out a different U.S. team, as they fought to earn 2.5 points to trail Europe 6.5-5.5 entering the afternoon four-ball matches. But a hungry European team increased their lead thanks to a spectacular afternoon four-ball session on Saturday afternoon in which they took all four points. Team Europe led the U.S. team 10.5 - 5.5 heading into Sunday's singles matches, which ties their largest lead ever heading into the final day of the Solheim Cup.

As the sun rose over the Rocky Mountains on Sunday, the Americans knew that it would take a massive effort for them to get the Cup back, as they needed to win nine points out of the 12 singles matches. U.S. Solheim Cup captain Meg Mallon sent out her top two American players in the first two matches of the day in order to try and get momentum on their side. Unfortunately for the U.S. team, neither Stacy Lewis nor Paula Creamer were able to capture a full point. Creamer lost easily, 5&4, to 17-year-old rookie sensation Charley Hull while Lewis halved with Sweden's Anna Nordqvist. Brittany Lang kept the U.S. hopes alive by capturing the first full point for the U.S. with a 2&1 victory over Spain's Azahara Munoz.

The U.S. team started out their matches strong, taking the lead in many of their matches but any momentum they had was then halted by Mother Nature. Play was suspended at 5:20 p.m. local time due to lightning in the area. After nearly an hour delay, play resumed at 6:16 p.m. with the critical match between Sweden's Caroline Hedwall and Michelle Wie on the 17th hole. The two players halved the par-3 17th to go to 18 all-square and that's when Hedwall stepped up and delivered a 4-foot birdie putt on 18 assuring the Europeans would retain the Cup for the first time since the event began in 1990. One match later, European Solheim Cup veteran Catriona Matthew sank a par putt on the 18th hole to halve her match with Gerina Piller and earn the half-point that gave the Europeans back-to-back victories for the first time in the history of the event.

Playing in her third Solheim Cup, Brittany Lang was the star for the U.S. team as she was the only American with a winning record for the week, posting 3-1-0. Lang's only loss came during Friday's foursomes matches when she was paired with Angela Stanford. The pair fell to Norway's Suzann Pettersen and Spain's Beatriz Recari, 2&1. Lang now holds an overall Solheim Cup record of 5-4-2. Perhaps it was only fitting that Caroline Hedwall secured the point that would retain the Cup for Europe since it also brought her record for the week to 5-0. The 24-year-old Swede is the only player in Solheim Cup history to earn five points in a single event. The previous record had been 4.5 points, which was held by 2013 European assistant Solheim Cup captain, Carin Koch.

2011 SOLHEIM CUP

The 2011 Solheim Cup, the 12th staging of the event, was held at Killeen Castle in Co. Meath, Ireland, Sept. 23-25. The U.S. team entered the week as favorites on paper, but Europe was determined to regain control of the Cup on their home soil. Tied 8-8 entering Sunday's singles play, the European team played flawless golf in the midst of torrential downpours and wind to steal a 15-13 victory and regain control of The Solheim Cup for the first time since 2003 and the fourth time overall.

The U.S. and European team ended Friday morning's Foursome tied 2-2, but the Alison Nicholas-led European team took command early in the afternoon Four-Ball matches and finished the day with a 4.5 to 3.5 lead, though the difference could have been much greater if not for a late U.S. surge. Europe increased the lead to 7-5 after the Saturday morning foursomes matches and once again took control early in the afternoon four-ball matches, but the U.S. team then launched a formidable comeback beginning with Solheim Cup rookies Stacy Lewis and Ryann O'Toole's 2&1 victory over Christel Boeljon and Sandra Gal. In the final match of the day, Brittany Lincicome and Paula Creamer defeated Maria Hjorth and Azahara Munoz 3&1 to pull the U.S. even with Europe at 8-8.

Come Sunday, most expected the U.S. team to dominate the singles matches as they historically have, but early on it seemed the day might belong to Europe following two unforeseen events. The first involved the final match of the day, when Cristie Kerr conceded her match with Karen Stupples due to a wrist injury, giving Europe the first point of the day. The second involved the first match of the day where Scotland's Catriona Matthew trounced Paula Creamer, who was previously unbeaten in singles play, 6&5. The focus then shifted to the weather, with three separate delays totaling nearly two hours hampering play. Amidst the delays, it appeared that the U.S. team might overcome the early adversity to gain control of the day – and a ninth Solheim Cup – but after Suzann Pettersen stole the spotlight with three-consecutive birdies to close out Michelle Wie with a 1-up victory, the momentum swung to Team Europe. Solheim Cup rookie Caroline Hedwall, a member of both the LPGA and LET, then battled back from two down on the 16th hole against fellow rookie Ryann O'Toole to squeeze out a half point, setting up Azahara Munoz, who was walking to the 18th tee with a 1-up lead over Angela Stanford, to clinch the 15th and final point for Team Europe.

Playing in her third Solheim Cup, Morgan Pressel was the star for the U.S. team. Pressel was the only American to go undefeated with a record of 4-0-0 to earn a total of four points for the U.S. team. The two-time LPGA Tour winner now holds an overall Solheim Cup record of 7-2-2. After serving her time as the first-ever playing Assistant Captain, Juli Inkster announced that 2011 was the final Solheim Cup she would compete in as a player.

LPGA Tour and Ladies European Tour veteran Laura Davies rewrote the Solheim Cup records books overtaking Annika Sorenstam as the all-time leader in points scored by either team.

The 2009 Solheim Cup, the 11th staging of the event, was held at Rich Harvest Farms in Sugar Grove, Ill., Aug 21-23. The U.S. Solheim Cup Team kept its undefeated record on home soil intact in front of a record crowd of 120,000. Tied 8-8 entering Sunday's singles play, the U.S. team pulled away to a 16-12 victory on Sunday to take an 8-3 lead all-time in Solheim Cup play.

Beth Daniel's U.S. team was considered heavy favorites on paper entering the event, but for the first two days of the 2009 Solheim Cup, no clear winner was established. The U.S. team took a 4.5 to 3.5 lead after Day One, but the Alison Nicholas-led European team matched their efforts on Day Two, evening the score at 8-8.

On Sunday, the U.S. team won the first three singles matches of the day to take an early lead. Angela Stanford earned a 5&4 victory over Becky Brewerton to get the scoring starting. She was quickly followed by Paula Creamer, who defeated Suzann Pettersen, 3&2, and Michelle Wie, who in her rookie campaign defeated 2007 European Captain Helen Alfredsson, 1 up. In need of six points to retain the Cup, Brittany Lang halved her match against Laura Davies with an 18th-hole birdie and Juli Inkster recorded a half point versus Gwladys Nocera. The winning point came in the 11th match of the day when Morgan Pressel defeated Anna Nordqvist 3&2 to retain the Cup.

Much of the week's hype was centered on LPGA rookie and captain's pick Michelle Wie, who became just the second Tour rookie to play on a U.S. team. Wie rose to the occasion by tying for the team lead in points scored with 3.5 on the heels of an undefeated 3-0-1 record. Other standouts included Creamer who, like Wie earned 3.5 points and fully emerged as the leader of the U.S. team for years to come. The 23-year-old improved her overall record to 8-2-4 with 10 points scored. Second-time U.S. team member Christina Kim used her fiery personality to energize the crowd and also earn 3.5 points for the U.S. team's effort.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

The Europeans were led by Gwladys Nocera who earned a 3-0-1 record and 3.5 points. Playing in her 11th Solheim Cup, Laura Davies participated in two matches with a 0-1-1 record. Davies owns a 21-17-5 record all-time with 23.5 points scored, one-half point shy of Annika Sorenstam's Solheim Cup record 24 points. The United States leads the overall competition 8-3.

2007 SOLHEIM CUP

The 2007 Solheim Cup, the 10th staging of the event, was held at Halmstad Golf Club in Halmstad, Sweden, Sept. 14-16. The U.S. team used a dominant performance in the Sunday singles matches to defeat the European team 16 to 12. It marked only the second time in The Solheim Cup history that a team has won on foreign soil and the first time since the 1996 U.S. team accomplished the same feat in Wales.

Going into the week, the U.S. team was statistically stronger, however, the European team had the advantage of a combined 40 Solheim Cup appearances by team members to the United States' 22. The European team, led by Sweden's Helen Alfredsson, also had the home-crowd advantage and the history of a 3-1 home record.

The U.S. team, led by Betsy King, took the early lead with two wins in Friday's foursome matches, but the European team regained some momentum in the Friday afternoon four-ball competition with a win and two halved matches. The U.S. team also got a victory and two halved matches to hold a 4.5 to 3.5 lead going into day two. This marked the first time since the 2002 Solheim Cup that the U.S. team held the lead after day one. On day two, the Saturday morning foursome matches were dead even as each team won one match and halved the other two. In the afternoon, though, Europe pulled ahead during the four-ball matches with two victories and a halved match to take an 8.5 to 7.5 lead entering the Sunday singles matches.

On Sunday, the United States stepped up to capture 8.5 of a possible 12 points in the singles matches. A day-three surge by three U.S. team rookies secured the itinerary for the Cup's return trip to the United States. The first rookie to emerge victorious was Stacy Prammanasudh as she defeated Suzann Pettersen 2 up, to give the U.S. team their fourth point in singles matches. Fellow U.S. team rookie Morgan Pressel fought a tightly contested match against Europe's Annika Sorenstam, who has made eight Solheim Cup appearances and ranks as the top point earner in the event's history. Pressel's birdie on 16 gave her a 2-up advantage and the match was closed out on 17, with a 2&1 upset. Nicole Castrale was the third rookie to win as she defeated European team rookie Bettina Hauert 3&2 to give the U.S. team their 14th point, which was enough to retain the Cup.

Veteran Juli Inkster, a seven-time U.S. team member, scored three points for the U.S. team with a 2-0-2 record and experienced her first Solheim Cup win on foreign soil. With a 14-8-5 overall Solheim Cup record, Inkster's 16.5 points matches Meg Mallon for most points earned by a U.S. Solheim Cup Team member.

Scot Catriona Matthew led the way for Europe with three points, while Sorenstam, Laura Davies and Maria Hjorth each accumulated 2.5 points. Sorenstam held on to her spot as the event's all-time points earner with 24 points, while Davies trails by one point. Davies is the only player to compete in all 10 Solheim Cup events and has compiled a 21-16-4 record. The United States now leads the overall competition, 7-3.

2005 SOLHEIM CUP

The 2005 Solheim Cup, the ninth staging of the event, was held at famed Crooked Stick Golf Club in Carmel, Ind., Sept. 9-11. Attempting to keep its untarnished record on home soil intact, the U.S. Solheim Cup Team did not disappoint the record 103,000 fans with a dominant performance in the Sunday singles matches to close out one of the closest Solheim Cups in history. Captained by the legendary Nancy Lopez, the U.S. team won seven of 12 singles matches to take back The Solheim Cup with a three-point victory over Europe, 15.5 to 12.5. Both teams came into the final day of competition all square at eight points each.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

The European team, led once again by Sweden's Catrin Nilsmark, set the tone early in the competition, winning three of the four morning foursomes matches on Friday, but the U.S. team regained some momentum with two wins in Friday's four-ball competitions to finish the day down 5-3. On day two, the U.S. team came out strong with three foursome victories in the morning. In the afternoon four-ball competition, each team won one match and halved the other two to go into the final day tied at eight.

The United States wasted little time in breaking an 8-8 tie on Sunday by winning the first five singles matches to take a 13-8 lead. It was the second time in Solheim Cup history that the United States took the first five singles matches, as they accomplished the same feat at the inaugural event in 1990. Needing 6.5 points on Sunday to regain the Solheim Cup, the competition ended when Meg Mallon (USA) defeated Karen Stupples (EUR) 3&1 on the 17th hole of the 11th match. Mallon is now the all-time leading points earner for the U.S. team with 16.5 points.

There was a lot of talk about how the three U.S. Solheim Cup Team rookies—Christina Kim, Natalie Gulbis and Paula Creamer—would fare on golf's biggest stage, but the trio answered the call and combined for an 8-3-2 record. Creamer went 3-1-1, Gulbis 3-1-0 and Kim was 2-1-1. 19-year-old Creamer, the first LPGA Tour rookie to make the U.S. team and the youngest player in Solheim Cup history, sealed an incredible Solheim Cup performance with a 7&5 trouncing of Europe's Laura Davies, who is the only player to compete in all nine stagings of the event.

Laura Diaz and Iben Tinning had two things in common when they both stepped to the first tee for their singles match: they were both undefeated in Solheim Cup singles play; and both were pregnant. Diaz won the match 6&5 to improve her singles record to 3-0-0, making her the only player with a 3-0-0 record in singles play.

Thanks to a 4-1-0 record, Annika Sorenstam became the event's all-time points earner. Sorenstam's career record is now 20-9-3 and her 21.5 points earned are the most in the history of the event. Before this year's matches, Sorenstam was tied with fellow European team member Davies with 17.5 points. Davies went 3-2-0 in 2005 and has 20.5 points, just one point behind Sorenstam.

Just two years after the largest victory margin in Solheim Cup history, the U.S. team's three-point win ties the closest match in the history of the event, as the 2002 and 1990 Solheim Cups were also decided by three points. The U.S.A. now leads the overall competition, 6-3, with a perfect 5-0 record on home soil.

2003 SOLHEIM CUP

The 2003 Solheim Cup, the eighth staging of the event, was held for the first time in Scandinavia at Barsebäck Golf and Country Club in Malmo, Sweden, Sept. 12-14. Once again featuring top U.S.-born players from the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the top European-born players from the Evian Ladies European Tour (LET), the European team dominated the matches from start to finish. Led by Swede Catrin Nilsmark, who captained her team from crutches due to a ruptured disk in her back that made walking almost unbearable, the European team claimed the Cup on home soil for the third time.

The superior shot-making exhibited by both sides delighted the first sold-out crowd in Solheim Cup history, and the 90,000 fans had much to cheer about right from the start as the European team won three of the four morning foursome matches on day one and halved the fourth. As in years past, however, the U.S. team rallied in the four-ball format that afternoon to close the gap to 4.5 to 3.5. But as the sun rose over the shores of Oresund on day two, it was again Europe's time to shine. The home team won three of four points in the morning foursomes matches, then pounced as the U.S. team uncharacteristically struggled in the afternoon four-balls, earning two crucial points to take a 9.5 to 6.5 lead. The final four-ball match was one of the most competitive and memorable matches in Solheim Cup history, with Suzann Pettersen and Annika Sorenstam carding two dramatic birdies on the final two holes to defeat Kelly Robbins and Laura Diaz, 1 up. The win gave Europe the spark it needed for Sunday's singles matches, a format typically dominated by the Americans.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

Needing to win only five of the 12 singles matches in order to reclaim the Cup, Europe wasted no time on Sunday morning. Janice Moodie, Sophie Gustafson, Iben Tinning and Annika Sorenstam all posted European blue on the leaderboards by winning their matches. The 2003 Solheim Cup ended when Catriona Matthew defeated Rosie Jones on the 17th hole of only the sixth match. Five more matches were still being completed, but once Jones missed her birdie try and then conceded Matthew's 9-foot birdie putt, it was all over. Three of the five remaining matches were conceded to the European team once the Cup was secured, giving the Europeans the largest margin of victory since the competition began in 1990, 17.5 – 10.5.

Annika Sorenstam added an exclamation mark to her already stellar 2003 season with a 4-1-0 record, giving her 17-.5 points in her Solheim Cup career. Sorenstam is now tied with Laura Davies as the event's all-time leading points earner. The overall score of The Solheim Cup now stands at 5-3, favoring the United States. The European team has won three of the four events contested on their home soil.

2002 SOLHEIM CUP

The 2002 Solheim Cup, the seventh staging of the event, was held at Interlachen Country Club in Edina, Minn., Sept. 20-22. Featuring the top U.S.-born players from the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the top European-born players from the Evian Ladies European Tour (LET), the U.S. team staged a thrilling come-from-behind victory to regain the Cup and keep its untarnished record on U.S. soil intact.

It was an event of sudden swings and lead changes, as well as one of the most closely contested Solheim Cups ever. Europe won three of the four morning foursomes matches on Friday, but the U.S. team rallied to win three of the four four-ball matches in the afternoon to tie the competition at 4-4 after the first day. The home team's momentum carried over into the morning foursomes matches on Saturday, where it won three of four matches to take a 7-5 lead. But the tide turned again in the afternoon as the Europeans swept the four-ball matches to take a commanding 9-7 lead into the final day.

The U.S. team, led by Captain Patty Sheehan and Assistant Captain Jane Geddes, once again showed its strength in the singles matches on Sunday, winning seven of 12 matches and halving three. Wendy Ward, who took world No. 1 Annika Sorenstam to 18 holes, earned a key half-point. In the final match of the day, Rosie Jones clinched the Cup for the U.S. team with a par putt on the 15th hole, giving the U.S. a 15.5 – 12.5 victory.

Laura Davies earned two points for the European team and became the all-time leading points earner in Solheim Cup competition (16) over Dottie Pepper (14), who qualified for the U.S. team but was unable to compete due to injury. Carin Koch continued her stellar Solheim Cup play, posting a 4-0-1 record to compliment her 3-0-0 record from the 2000 event. Koch's only blemish to a perfect record came in the singles matches when she halved with veteran Beth Daniel after the outcome of the event was already decided.

2000 SOLHEIM CUP

The 2000 Solheim Cup, the sixth staging of the event, was held at Loch Lomond Golf Club, Oct. 6-8, in Alexandria by Luss, Scotland. Featuring the top U.S.-born players from the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the top European-born players from the Evian Ladies European Tour (LET), the European team captured the Cup from the defending U.S. team by a score of 14.5 – 11.5.

After posting an unprecedented 4-0 record in the morning foursomes matches, the European team, captained by Dale Reid and Assistant Captain Pamela Wright, took a commanding three-point lead after the first day of foursomes matches. Europe widened its lead to five points following the second day of play by winning four of the six four-ball matches.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

The U.S. team, led by Captain Pat Bradley and Assistant Captain Debbie Massey, fought back on the final day of play, winning seven of the 12 singles matches, but fell short of the 13 points it needed to retain the Cup. Carin Koch made a 10-foot birdie putt on the 17th hole of the second-to-last match that clinched the victory for Europe. The last time Europe had won The Solheim Cup was in 1992, when the competition was first played in Scotland.

1998 SOLHEIM CUP

The 1998 Solheim Cup, the fifth staging of the event, was held at Muirfield Village Golf Club, Sept. 18-20, in Dublin, Ohio. Featuring the top U.S.-born players from the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the European-born players from the European Ladies' Professional Golf Association (ELPGA), the United States retained the Cup by defeating the European team, 16-12.

The U.S. team, captained by Judy Rankin, had the lead going into the final day, but the European team mounted a strong effort, winning six of the singles matches outright. Sherri Steinhauer's putt to win her match against Catriona Matthew, 3&2, clinched the U.S. team's title. Meg Mallon, playing in the day's final match, conceded the 18th hole to Sophie Gustafson to halve the match.

Tammie Green became the first pregnant Solheim Cup competitor, and Dottie Pepper was the only player to go undefeated during the three-day competition. Attendance records for the Solheim Cup were set every day of the competition, as well as for the opening and closing ceremonies.

1996 SOLHEIM CUP

The fourth staging of the biennial trans-Atlantic women's professional team match-play competition between the Ladies Professional Golf Association (LPGA) Tour and the Women Professional Golfers' European Tour (WPGET), the 1996 Solheim Cup was played at the Marriott St. Pierre Hotel & Country Club in Chepstow, Wales, from Sept. 20-22, 1996.

The U.S. team successfully defended its possession of the Waterford crystal trophy bringing the overall, four-year competition score to 3-1. The U.S. team pulled out its victory on the third and final day of competition by winning 10 out of 12 singles matches, bringing the 1996 competition's final point total to 17-11.

For the first time, The Solheim Cup featured two teams of 12 players. The first and second day's play featured four foursomes matches in the morning and four four-ball matches in the afternoon. The competition culminated on the third day with 12 singles matches.

2015 SOLHEIM CUP

The United States knew it would take an epic comeback on Sunday if they were going to bring The Solheim Cup back across the pond.

Having never come back from bigger than a two-point deficit heading into singles, the U.S. needed the largest comeback in history if it was going to end Europe's reign of two straight victories in the Solheim Cup as they trailed 10-6.

Rally is exactly what Team USA did on Sunday by capturing nine of the 12 matches and earning a halve in the opening match to earn exactly the 8 ½ points needed to regain The Solheim Cup. U.S. Captain Juli Inkster said the final session came down to something she preached to her players all week.

"You know what, I was on them all week," said Inkster. "You've got to play with heart. You've got to play with fire in your belly. Never give up. I saw my team out there today, it didn't look good early, they hung in there, a lot of 2-downs came to evens, and then plus 1."

Things started off slowly for the Americans as there was a lot of blue on the scoreboard in the early holes, but the tide turned red in the middle of the day thanks to some hot play from Team USA.

Sitting 3-down to Charley Hull on the fourth hole, Cristie Kerr made nine birdies in her next 11 holes en route to a 3&2 victory. Michelle Wie shot 30 on the front nine while capturing a 6&4 victory over Caroline Hedwall. In the last three matches of the day, the U.S. won by no less than Kerr's 3&2 victory.

The Cup ended up coming down to two matches: Gerina Piller vs. Caroline Masson and Angela Stanford vs. Suzann Pettersen. Piller was 2 UP with two to play but Masson parred the 17th to cut the lead to one heading to 18. With Masson facing a 10-foot birdie putt, Piller had to get up and down from the thick rough in order to have a chance to win the match. Masson missed her birdie putt and Piller sank the biggest putt of her career and was swarmed by her teammates on the 18th green in celebration.

Stanford was all square with Pettersen through 14, but birdies on 15 and 16 gave her a 2 UP lead with two to play. The U.S. couldn't afford a split, and Stanford clinched the victory with a par and halved hole on No. 17 for the 2&1 win.

There was a little extra motivation for the Americans in their comeback following some controversy early Sunday morning at the conclusion of the Saturday afternoon four-ball matches. Three matches had to finish on Sunday. The Americans won one of the first two and appeared to have a chance to gain at least another half point in the final fourball match between Brittany Lincicome & Alison Lee and Suzann Pettersen and Hull. But with the match all square on the 17th, Lee missed a birdie putt that would have won the hole and when she picked up the 1 ½ footer that remained for par, the Europeans stated that they had not conceded the putt although Lee had thought she heard them do so. The Europeans were then granted the hole and went 1 UP into the 18th and went on to win the critical point.

Lee went out in the fifth singles match and got a bit of redemption herself with a 3&1 win over Gwladys Nocera. Lee, who was the only rookie on either team this week, played like a season-veteran in the afternoon after rallying from a 2-down deficit early on and rattled off three consecutive birdies on Nos. 5-7 and never looked back. She won three more holes on the back nine including the 17th after Nocera hit her approach shot in the water. Lee said the win helped soothe the heartache from the morning's controversy.

"Yes, of course," said Lee. "I really felt like we had that match, and I was sure we had that point for our team. And losing that match and seeing all the girls surrounding me and giving me a lot of support and showing me that they had my back, it felt great. And I think it really did motivate us all to play well in the afternoon and fire back."
